

Creative Spaces Mentoring Network

Program Overview | 2021-22

The Creative Spaces Mentoring Network (CSMN) is provided to cultural leaders in Ontario's arts and cultural sectors. Arts professionals who are responsible for some or all aspects of their facilities, who plan on acquiring creative space, and/or who manage capital-related issues are encouraged to apply to develop a creative space project further. If selected, mentees will have the opportunity to access one-to-one learning with an experienced professional who will provide knowledge and expertise related to their space projects. The program focuses on strengthening business and management skills needed to successfully oversee, renew and develop creative spaces across Ontario. The 2021-22 program will be the seventh iteration of CSMN.

Through the Creative Spaces Mentoring Network, ArtsBuild Ontario (ABO) matches arts and cultural leaders with experienced mentors from the arts, heritage, or other relevant sectors. Once mentoring teams are confirmed, they will meet at the Kick-Off Webinar and afterwards begin meeting; mentors and mentees will meet for up to three hours monthly over 12 months to focus on developing skills and knowledge related to the mentee's focus areas for their creative space project.

Such focus areas include, but are not limited to:

- Creating accessible spaces
- Property management and or leasing
- Community relationships, strategic partnerships, and community engagement strategies
- Marketing, digital literacy, communications and promotions
- Human resources
- Asset management
- Finances, fundraising and capital campaigns
- Municipal and government relations

Participants and their organizations can benefit in many ways from this program. Participants will gain:

- Improved business strategies
- Management and leadership skills
- Confidence
- Decision-making skills
- Communication strategies
- Networking opportunities and contacts

Creative Spaces Mentoring Network

ABO will train and support the mentoring teams so that they get the most out of the program by developing and providing:

- A Kick-Off Webinar, Mid-Program Webinar, and a Wrap-Up Webinar
- Resources & learning opportunities
- Mentoring support
- Networking opportunities

How to Apply to be a Mentor for the Creative Spaces Mentoring Network

If you have been part of a capital project, strategic plan, or have knowledge to share in arts management, the Creative Spaces Mentoring Network provides an opportunity for you to support fellow arts managers and foster strong arts and heritage sectors.
